

Celebrate with Exchange

2007 Annual NAEYC Conference and Expo

November 7-10, 2007 • Chicago, Illinois

Picture yourself on the cover of Exchange!

This year at NAEYC, Exchange is delighted to invite you to help celebrate our 30th anniversary. Since Exchange magazine made its debut in 1978, we have been honored to feature over 150 early childhood professionals from around the world on the cover of the magazine. Now, it is your turn. Get the recognition you deserve for your important work with children. Visit us at booth #2224 to receive a free photo of yourself appearing on the cover of Exchange, The Early Childhood Leaders' Magazine Since 1978.

The Exchange booth is always the "meeting place" during NAEYC. So make plans to stop by, pose for your photo, take a few moments to relax, and visit with your peers. We'll save you a comfortable seat. See you there!

Visit the exhibit booths of Exchange's advertising partners. On the next few pages, you'll find a convention hall map and reference guide showing where the booths of Exchange advertisers are located.
